Weekly Bible Text: "I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile. For in the gospel a righteousness from God is revealed, a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: "the righteous will live by faith." Romans 1:16, 17

Thought for the week: "The cream of enjoyment in this life is always impromptu. The chance walk; the unexpected visit; the unpremeditated journey; the unsought conversation or acquaintance." Fanny Fern (1811-1872) Writer and columnist

Thanks to all of you who have brought in Box Tops For Education – We should meet our goal this year of $500.00. 😊

News from the 8th Grade: On September 16th my class (new 8th graders) and the seventh grade class boarded a bus to the Ropes Course. When we got there, we started off by playing a weird version of rock-paper-scissors that made everybody look like freaks. Of course, after that game, we got into our groups. My group was called the Bulgy Blue Pterodactyls and please don't ask about the name. Our first stop was to the flying squirrel, and then we played a challenge game where we swung from a rope to a platform without touching the ground. Of course, being clumsy me, I fell on the ground several times before I could get to the platform. But, overall, our group couldn't have won without the help of our two amazing leaders: Ethan Beaver and Ms. Fish (who was muted, but still did awesome). We went on the zip line which was really fun. Finally, we were walking up to go on the giant swing. Even though we were pretty far away, I could still hear the screams of people who were still on it. Overall, it was a really fun field trip and it's horrible that I can't go back. Veronica A.

The ropes course was soooooo much fun!

Not only did we get to spend time flying through the air, swinging through the trees and overcoming obstacle courses, we really got to trust our classmates and use tons of teamwork. Being able to bond with other classmates was awesome. I think, over all, the memories there will last a life time.-Takara M. <33

Thanks Takara and Veronica for sharing your experiences at YWAM (Youth With A Mission)
